3rd Party Guidelines & Required On-boarding Document List

1. MMI will work with three types of Corporations:
 - a) S-Corp.
 - b) C-Corp.
 - c) LLC Corporation (that has filed the corporate election only and can provide proof of corporate taxes)
- To work as a corporation you must file quarterly corporate taxes and you must be able to provide proof (Federal 941 or a copy of your most recent W2 issued by your corporation).
- As per Mitchell Martin's policy we do not accept corporations that file as a 1099.

Please note:

- ✓ LLC's must provide a signed copy of form 8832 (Entity Classification Election form confirming the type of entity (check box 6A), "A domestic eligible entity electing to be classified as an association taxable as a Corporation."
 - ✓ Or 2553 (Corporate Election Form) if you are a S-Corp.
 - ✓ If your corporation is newly incorporated you will need to additionally provide EIN Letter from the IRS, and the appropriate completed Corporate Election Form
-  If you cannot provide that documentation or any of the other below required corporate documentation you must contact your recruiter immediately.

2. Subcontractors must ensure all workers are W2 employees of Subcontractor
